

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 James J. Jorissen,

Case No. 2:14-cv-765-JAD-PAL

4 Plaintiff,

5 v.

Order Re: Doc. 6

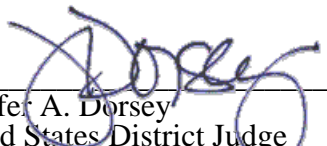

6 Brent Donald Holingsworth, et al.,

7 Defendants.

8 Plaintiff commenced this real property suit on May 15, 2014. Doc. 2. On July 1, 2014, he 9 filed a motion for “a Petition in the Nature of Amended Complaint for Quiet Title.” Doc. 5. Upon
10 review of this motion, it is apparent that this is really a request for leave to file an amended
11 complaint. Doc. 6 at 1. On August 14, 2014, because no defendant had yet appeared, I found good
12 cause to grant the request for an amended complaint and instructed plaintiff to “re-title Document #
13 5 (the motion) to reflect that the document is a ‘First Amended Complaint,’ and then “file that First
14 Amended Complaint with the Clerk of Court within 10 days of the date of this order and ensure that 15 it is properly and timely served on the defendants.” Id. at 2. To date, plaintiff has not complied
16 with this instruction. By this order, I reiterate my instruction regarding plaintiff’s re-filing
17 obligations.

18 Plaintiff is HEREBY ORDERED to re-title Document #5 (the motion) to reflect that the 19 document is a “First Amended Complaint”; plaintiff must then file that First Amended Complaint
20 with the Clerk of Court by December 22, 2014 and ensure that it is properly and timely served on 21 the defendants. Plaintiff is cautioned that his failure to file the First Amended Complaint as 22 instructed may result in sanctions for failure to comply with a court order, including striking of the 23 amended complaint.

24 DATED: December 11, 2014.
